Spiritual Message

Deacon Paul Hursh

Everything Belongs”

“The dragnet is a familiar symbol in our parish. The net motif was chosen as our symbol because our patron, saint Andrew, was a fisherman. The net is a metaphor for the kingdom of heaven in one of today’s Gospel parables. Because a dragnet gathers all fish, good and bad, it can be a challenging metaphor for God’s kingdom. Perhaps it is disturbing because it challenges us in the same way as life itself. We often ask, “Why does God allow evil in the world?” Why indeed! If God is a benevolent god, then why does He allow suffering and injustice? This question can challenge one’s faith... as only suffering can.

After pondering suffering and weakness in the world, St. Paul concludes that God’s Spirit persists in the travails of life. In trust Paul affirms that there is good even in the midst of suffering when he writes, “...all things work for good for those who love God...” (Romans 8:28b) The fact that we suffer in the present confirms that the Christian vocation, as God designed it, is to be conformed to the image of his Son. This is a vocation that chooses to be a positive generative force in the world even in the midst of opposition by those who oppose God’s purpose. This was the path that Jesus chose and what God worked for good, a cross that becomes our greatest grace. The image of God who chose to suffer with us and never abandons us. But why must this suffering persist until the end?

Like the weeds among the wheat (Matthew 13: 24-33) we may wonder why we need to suffer the bad fish with the good in the present age. The answer is that we are unfit to distinguish right from wrong as we await our own redemption and transformation. Like Solomon, in the first reading, we should pray to God for the gift of wisdom. Pray that God will grant us an understanding heart to see the wisdom of patience and the value of necessary suffering. Then our suffering will be joined with the suffering that St. Paul referred to when he wrote, “I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church.” (Colossians 1:24) The wisdom of this is when we share in the work of Christ by service to the poor; our sufferings are joined to His and we also participate in the redemption of the world. Practically speaking we become a sign and the vehicle of God’s love and that God has not abandoned the world but responds to our needs in real and material ways. In the end it is up to God to sort the fish, ours is to allow ourselves to be caught up in this net where everything belongs - we call it the kingdom of heaven.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Brother Knights

I went through my first business meeting as program director and found out how much work Mike Threadgill and John Simpson put into our Council. Keeping track of calendar items alone is a full time job. I do like working with all of our directors over each program and look forward to a continued interaction throughout the year. Our District Deputies message for this year is participate in quality programs and “Support Life at Every Stage”. I know that every program we have on file is a quality program. Ensuring that each program supports life at every stage is something we will ensure happens or look for ways to make it happens. The 2017-2018 program review is rapidly approaching and we will continue to look and listen to our program directors every step of the way. We do have co-chair positions for most programs. We are looking for Knights that want to help the directors fulfill all program obligations and look for ways to expand each program. Please be a part of our council by joining our programs. You will find it the most rewarding thing you do for our council.

What do I see on the calendar for July and August and what programs are coming:

7/24: Officers meeting. Please come and discuss your ideas.

7/30: 5th Sunday Rosary celebration. Brunch to follow.

8/6: Knights mass followed by Installation of Officers.

8/14: Council and Assembly meetings.

8/17: Call to Protect Training Class. Every Knight needs to be certified.

8/18-8/20: Father and Son Campout. Theme: “Heroes Among Us”.

8/28: Officers meeting. Please come and discuss your ideas.

Raising Awareness About Life Insurance

Each September since 2003 has been designated as Life Insurance Awareness Month. Like most awareness-raising campaigns, Life Insurance Awareness Month was created because there is an overwhelming lack of understanding of life insurance, its uses, its benefits, and its variations among the general public. Each year, the Life Insurance Market Research Association (LIMRA) puts out the results from a recent survey, and unfortunately, the numbers they report continue to be discouraging.

A recent survey found that more than 75 percent of people polled did not have a personal financial advisor, even though 68 percent of them said their opinion of the current economic conditions was somewhat unfavorable or very unfavorable.

In other words, a majority of those surveyed were uncomfortable with the economy and the uncertainty it brings, yet they did not seek professional assistance. Maybe they spoke with their friends and family. Maybe they hoped the instability would go away on its own. Maybe they did not know to whom to turn.

If you fall into this category, please remember that as a member of the Knights of Columbus, you have a full-time, professional agent you can call your own. My primary responsibility is the care and service of your family's life insurance, retirement and long-term care needs. I'll answer your questions because I want your decisions to be informed ones. I want to help.

Another LIMRA statistic said 43 percent of people did not buy life insurance because they worry about "making the wrong decision." Talk with me, your agent, and, afterwards, you'll understand that the only wrong decision was not purchasing sooner to protect your family's future.

A Trust is Like a Suit Case, Are You Ready to Go?

Imagine preparing to travel on an incredible vacation – one for which you have spent your entire life planning. Now, imagine reaching your destination only to discover that you brought nothing with you but an empty suitcase! You have no clothes, no toiletries, and no other personal items that help make your travel experience easy and comfortable. Believe it or not, this is a perfect metaphor for your estate planning.

Think of your Trust as the suitcase and your entire estate plan as the vacation. You might spend a great deal of time on your estate planning, just as you would spend time planning your vacation. You want every detail accounted for, and you want your travel to be streamlined and worry-free. Much like your suitcase, your Trust is designed to help you organize your belongings and be sure they make it to the intended destination. However, you must actually put your belongings into the suitcase for it to serve its purpose. Similarly, you must actually fund your Trust with your assets to be sure your estate will ultimately be distributed in accordance with your wishes.

Sure, if you arrive with an empty suitcase, you can probably buy new clothes and toiletries. However, you can never be certain they will be the items you truly want, and you run the risk of not being able to get certain items at all. Additionally, if you have to buy all new clothes and personal items, you will incur added expenses that would normally not have been necessary. These same concepts apply to your Trust and the administration of your estate. Without a properly funded trust, you can never be certain that your assets will be distributed in the manner that is truly in keeping with your wishes. Furthermore, having an unfunded Trust will almost certainly result in additional legal services and fees that will be required to administer your estate. Your beneficiaries may be left with far less than you hoped and intended for them to receive. Or, even worse yet, there is the possibility that certain of your intended beneficiaries may not receive anything at all. Your Trust will not necessarily control assets that were never properly funded to the Trust.

We place great emphasis on the Trust funding process as part of our estate planning services, and we work closely with all of our clients to be sure all of their assets are “pointed in the right direction.” Please contact us to schedule a time to discuss your estate plan and your funding. We would be pleased to assist you in fulfilling all of your estate planning needs. Let’s pack that suitcase!

Attendance at our Assembly Meetings continues to grow with well over 50% of our members in attendance.

Summary

Our Newly Installed Faithful Navigator, Dan Blomberg and Assembly recognized the leadership and vision of Dan Stoecklin our past Faithful Navigator over the last year and a half. We had tremendous growth in Sir Knights from our founding PFN with over 72 members strong and an increase in the Sir Knights in our color corp. SK Dan Stoecklin will always be our founding Faithful Navigator.

FN Dan Blomberg also recognized 2016-2017 Assembly 3591 officers for making this Assembly one of the best in the state of Arizona. Thank you for all you did to expand our programs and grow our accomplishments. He (FN) also congratulated our new 2017 – 2018 Officers for volunteering to keep expanding the programs we have and to keep our growth increasing for both Assembly and Honor Guard.

The Installation of the 2017-2018 Installation of officers was held on July 18th in Hennessey Hall.

Color Corp. Call-Outs

Welcome Darren Wenginger as our new Color Corp Commander. Thanks to Darren for stepping into this rewarding role for our Assembly.

We had a callout at St Andrew's for the Corpus Christi Procession followed by the Father's Day Mass on June 18th. A Special Thanks to Phil Vogel, Dan Sexton, Walter Douglas, and Mike Noffke who carried the canopy for this celebration. We also participated in additional callouts for the Viewing and Funeral services for SK Jim Hodges and Rosary Sunday at Saint Andrew for Rosary Sunday on July 30th.

Knights of Columbus members from Council 9482 and Assembly 3591 assisted with other men and women from St. Andrew The Apostle in building a new home for the Cordova family in Tempe. With the parish's laity generous contribution to purchase building materials, the K of C's exclusively labored one weekend, and Knight's individually worked with SATA parishioners over five weekends to help build this home. Fr. Teilo and Fr. Ed Urassa both blessed the family, workers, and dedicated the new home with a blessing. Thus, we are all honoring Christ's command that we help those in need of shelter and are less fortunate brothers and sisters. This is the 16th home that ST. Andrew has partnered with other organizations to build. It is hoped that the Knights of Columbus will be a parish participant in many more homes for the needy.
