Grand Knights Report

Grand Knights Message

By Frank Saavedra

I had a case of the creepy cruds this last weekend, so I didn't show up for church. I did watch the Catholic Mass that is shown on Sunday's to try and make up for missing mass. The priest giving the homily on TV said something that really 'got to me'.

He said that our actions as Catholics are viewed by others, and it could be the only scripture they ever read. I took that to mean that some people form their views of Catholicism from our actions rather than from studying or reading about our religion. This is probably more true of Knights.

When I mention to someone that I'm a Knight, they immediately know I'm a Catholic. It doesn't matter what their faith is. It seems that Knights are 'known Catholics'. That being the case, we become examples of Catholicism just because we are Knights.

Whenever people know you are a Knight, remember you are a scripture in motion. Always make it a good scripture.

God Bless!

AMAZED · BUT NOT YET FAZED

Fourth Sunday In Ordinary: January 31, 2016

Last week we heard how Jesus chose his hometown synagogue to declare the advent of the Kingdom of God in the words of Isaiah...

*The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me
to bring glad tidings to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.*
(cf. Isaiah 61:1-2)

Today's Gospel selection follows immediately after this bold proclamation – and the impact on the hometown crowd was at first, amazement at the authority with which he spoke. Their amazement quickly turns to disbelief as if they wonder out loud, "if anything good could come from Nazareth." (cf. John 1:46) Jesus presence seemed to have impressed them, but it didn't seem to have fazed them. Their hearts were not changed. Jesus reads their hearts, understanding that they were probably hoping for a replay of the miracle cure he performed on the man with the withered hand – the probable reason for their amazement.

He catches them in their desire for a miracle show and names it by remarking, "Surely you will say... 'do here the things we heard were done in Capernaum.'" At this point, the people's amazement turns to indignation. Then, when Jesus points out that he has come for all peoples, not just the people of his own religious tribe, Jesus barely escapes with his life. Jesus knows what this is about; he is experiencing what all the prophets before him faced, when they spoke truth to those with closed minds. Their minds were closed to the truth, and so their hearts could not accept His transformative love.

Our aversion to the truth is as true today as ever. When a good man speaks the hard truth to those who are blind and whose hearts are closed, he will feel their scorn. Are we ready to hear the unvarnished truth? Unless we become aware of our own blind spots and strive to remain open to hearing the truth about our own motives – we too may come to possess withered hearts. Remember blind Bartimaeus, who cried out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" (Mark 10:47) He knew what he wanted – to see. ...and because he was ready, Jesus could alleviate his blindness, because of his faith. Healing is not something done to us, but something done with us. In all of Jesus' miracles, the person who received the grace of healing or wholeness, participated, by faith or action or assent.

Contrast hostility of the folks in Capernaum (and now in his hometown), to everyone else with whom he is very popular. Was he popular and successful with these others, because they were amazed by the miracles or because, they know the truth about their brokenness and they hope to be healed? It is often said that the first step towards health and wholeness is to know the nature of the sickness. In the end many more people will reject Jesus, and when he returns to his hometown, even his family will try to seize him – thinking he was out of his mind. Poor Jesus it seems that he is uniformly misunderstood on all sides. He has not come to judge people under the law or, to be a miracle sideshow or, become an avenging King. He came instead to declare the Kingdom of God – a Commonwealth of Love and Justice – and to bring healing and wholeness through the gracious love of His Father.

How well do we understand Jesus even today? Why do we follow Jesus? Do we look for Jesus to amaze us, or do we strive to seek wholeness and live fully as we have been created? Do I pray for an easy life or the grace and mercy to live the life we have. Do we pray for comfort or faith?

Jesus did not deny the healing they sought and he often casts out the demons that plague them as well. Today we should continue to seek out healing – physical, emotional, or spiritual. The first step toward wholeness is to go to Jesus in prayer, openly admitting our brokenness, our sickness, and demons. Then we need to pray for God's will to be done in our lives. ...and this is not the end of the process, there is more that we should do – as was done by those healed by Jesus so long ago.

As we are healed (in body, mind, or spirit) we share that healing with others and seek to comfort and heal others. In this way Jesus' healing and our ministering to others becomes a sign of the Kingdom. Sometimes it only takes our caring presence, or listening ear – and sometimes true healing through our hands as conduits of God's grace. As Jesus proclaims in John's Gospel, "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father." (John 14:12)

Today there is no Jesus on earth, but us. No good news of the Gospel but our voices raised for those without a voice. No power for the powerless but us when we stand in the breach at our own expense. We are the Body of Christ. ...but keep in mind that our mission is more dangerous than glorious – on this side of the resurrection. ...more scary than assured conviction before the final judgment. ...more inconvenient than satisfying, before eternity. ...and no one knows with certainty what lies beyond the veil – that is why we rely on Faith, Hope and Love.

*A saint always knows that there is more than enough
for our need
but never enough
for our greed.*

At the 1952 Emmy Awards, Bishop Sheen defeated Edward R. Murrow, Lucille Ball and Arthur Godfrey for the title of Most Outstanding Television Personality. Upon accepting his award, he said,

"I wish to thank my four writers, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John."

Knights of Columbus INSURANCE YOUR SHIELD FOR LIFE

Think You Are Too Old for Coverage? Maybe Not

Feb 2016

You are never too young or too old to consider purchasing life insurance. If you have a financial need for coverage, or will in the future, a permanent life insurance policy can be just the thing you need. When you are young and presumably healthy, coverage will be very inexpensive when compared to purchasing the same policies when you are older.

If you've put off purchasing coverage, or you realize that you may need additional insurance, the Order may still be able to help you, even if other companies cannot. In fact, in 2012, the issue age of our permanent life insurance products was extended to age 80, and in 2014, the issue age of our term insurance was extended to age 70. Naturally, your health, and whether or not you smoke, will be taken into consideration, so underwriting standards for risk and age apply. But, the extensions are a great blessing for me – and it could be for you too. Now I can help members that I couldn't help before. Are you or one of your brother knights one of those members?

Whether you're 18 or 80, the Knights of Columbus has products that will work for you and your family. I look forward to discussing coverage with you.

Tom

State Raffle Tickets

Chuck McKay—Raffle Chairman

State Raffle ticket sales are upon us once again. And as you may or may not know, our Council sold the winning raffle ticket last year. The State Raffle Chairman gave me the idea to reach out to family members and friends both locally and in other states. So I got my family members to purchase tickets.

The result was my sister-in-law in Iowa had the 1st place winning ticket. This was great that Our Council sold the winning ticket in 2015.

But our primary focus is to raise money, all proceeds collected from this raffle go to the Caring Ministries here at St. Andrews the Apostle Church.

Last years sales almost doubled funds raised from the year before. Wouldn't it be great to do the same again this year.

But we need everyone's help to accomplish this task.

We will also hold a drawing from all tickets sold by Our Council again this year. There will be 5 guaranteed cash winners.

Why Did You Become A Knight?

Becoming a Knight can transform your life.

As a Knight you have the opportunity to support your parish and give back to your community. We are a band of brothers...a network of men dedicated to doing good in the service of God and our neighbors. Knights are men who get things done....Volunteering our time and talents to serve our parish and community. We are asking each current and past Knight to step up and bring at least one new brother into the Council. Each Knight who signs up a "New Member" will be awarded the Arizona Star Recruiter Pin.

If you have been an inactive Knight, or know someone who has been and wish to get back in the Council...Contact John Simpson or Richard Bruck at the email addresses on the bottom of this page.

Why Become a 2nd, 3rd and 4th Degree Knight

Your personal involvements as a Knight will provide opportunities, in charity and fraternity for service to the Church at the local, diocesan and universal levels; to your communities; and to the less fortunate in our midst.

A First Degree exemplification ceremony, by which a man joins the Order, explicates the virtue of charity. He is then said to be a First Degree Knight of Columbus.

Second Degree Knights, Formation Degree, focuses on another virtue of unity and he rises to that status.

Third Degree, Knighthood Degree, a gentleman is considered a full member.

Fourth Degree, Patriot Degree, is the highest degree of the order.

Members of this degree are addressed as "Sir Knight".

The primary purpose of the Fourth Degree is to foster the spirit of patriotism and to encourage active Catholic citizenship.
